

Differences Between PHP and ASP

PHP

PHP is open source technology which can be used for free it means PHP is open source technology.

PHP is a programming language that is used for creating web application.

PHP was launched by Rasmus Lerdorf in 1995.

PHP Works well with MySQL Database. MySQL Database is also available Free.

PHP can run in Linux Operating System which is available for free.

PHP Syntax is similar to the syntax of C and C++ Programming.

ASP

ASP.Net is a Microsoft technology that is expensive in price it means is not open source.

ASP.Net is a platform in which programming language such as VB.Net and C# can be used to create ASP.Net application.

ASP.Net was launched by Microsoft in 2002.

ASP.Net mostly works with MS-SQL Database is not available for free.

ASP.Net needs Windows Platform which is not available for free.

The ASP.Net syntax is similar to syntax of VB.